About Us!

Anais and Mirabelle began their career at three years old as print models and have appeared in numerous advertisements for major retailers and fashion brands throughout the United States, Europe and Asia.

They began acting at five years old, landing their first co-starring role in the feature film "Blood Ties". Since then, they have appeared in numerous roles on both the small screen and the big screen, in TV shows from "The Blacklist, Madam Secretary, VEEP, The Following, Mozart in the Jungle and Happy!" to feature films like "The Sun Is Also A Star" and the upcoming horror film "Slapface."

The girls are trained dancers in ballet, jazz and hip-hop, dancing in Debbie Allen's musicals the "Hot Chocolate Nutcracker" and "Brothers of the Knight". They also danced and performed in the 91st Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade in New York City on the Sesame Street float and for the past five years have walked and danced down the runway for New York Fashion Week in the Rookie USA fashion shows for Nike, Converse, Hurley and Levi's.

You may have also seen them in national television commercials and as frequent faces on Nickelodeon promos, or winning the "Iced Out Mic" while entertaining the audience on Nickelodeon's Lip-Sync Battle Shorties. The girls continue to enthrall their loyal base of fans that follow them on social media through Instagram, Facebook, YouTube and TikTok.

ANAIS LEE TALKS WITH TMI ABOUT HER ROLE IN THE UPCOMING FILM "THE SUN IS ALSO A STAR"

Playing Young Natasha in the movie, Anais Lee gave us an inside look at how her character was Natasha up to become the character we know to really fall in love in the movie. Anais says that her character supports the main character played by Yara Shahidi because it is Young Natasha that gives us access to their relationship with the father character. "As Natasha girl, she's relationship with her father deteriorated and Natasha knows her father for her family loving support," Anais said. "It's this relationship that is really the backbone for Natasha's family and how they end relationships."
